CHURCH STREET CHRISTMAS IN DADE CITY CELEBRATES 37th ANNIVERSARY

An annual Christmas celebration including a candle lit street featuring beautifully decorated homes with musicians and performers December 21 - 23, 2014.

DADE CITY, FLORIDA (DECEMBER 5, 2014) – Church Street Christmas, a favorite holiday tradition for families, is celebrating its 37th anniversary in Dade City this month. The annual event is located in Dade City on Church Avenue from the corner of 17th Street to 10th Street. The neighbors and churches of Church Avenue will welcome the community to visit the red bricked, candle lit street from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for three evenings of holiday entertainment.

The celebration will include performances by local church choirs, the Dade City Symphony, and talented musicians from all over East Pasco County. The entire street is blocked off where visitors may stroll and listen and see the sights of the season. In years past, more than 10,000 people visit each night to take part in this Christmas tradition.

“This is an incredible Christmas tradition that many families have built in to their holiday planning. This is a totally free event that includes a beautiful stroll down a street that is filled with Christmas songs, spirit, and joy,” said Kimberly Higgins, whose family lives on Church Avenue. “All of the neighbors on Church Avenue enjoy this time of year when the spirit of Christmas fills our neighborhood and our many visitor’s hearts.”

Church Street Christmas features a candle lit brick street, beautifully decorated homes with front lawns filled with carolers and performers of all ages. Three churches will be open every evening with additional entertainment and even a live nativity. Entertainment varies each night but will include groups such as the Showstoppers, a local bell choir, and a musical light display that dances to favorite Christmas songs.
